

Accommodation, Airfills & Pick Up Information 2023

We are based in Holy Loch Marina, near Dunoon (PA23 8FE) which is just a short ferry ride across the Clyde from Gourock, and only around 1 hour from Glasgow.

Western Ferries info here (car & passenger) <https://www.western-ferries.co.uk/>

Calmac Ferries info here (passenger only) <https://www.calmac.co.uk/gourock-dunoon-service>

Always remember to buy your ferry tickets BEFORE boarding as you will save around 50%.

If you wish to leave your car at home and take the public transport route, we can also assist in arranging airport pick-ups from Glasgow.

We provide air fills for 232 bar cylinders and we can also have a selection of cylinders and weights for hire. The hire of these is FREE for divers visiting Dunoon, you simply pay for the fills. Please contact us for further information on this.

Pick Up Locations

Holy Loch Marina

Wreckspeditions are based in Holy Loch Marina. You are very welcome to meet us here for any of our diving or boat trips. If you arrange to meet us here, please meet Jason at the seating area near the top of the ramp down onto the pontoons. There is ample free customer parking with toilets, showers, laundrette, a café and shops on site and close by. We also have our air fill facility, equipment hire and newly completed shop on site too.

Kip Marina

We are happy to offer pick ups from Kip Marina for a minimum of 6 divers. If you arrange to meet us here, Jason will moor up in Visitors Berth B and will come and open up the gate to the pontoon and help you load the boat. There is ample free customer parking right by the gate to Berth B, with a café and shops. Currently the marina toilets are being kept shut to the public, so you have to use the café toilet, or walk 10mins to the Chartroom.

Largs Yacht Haven

We are happy to offer pick ups from Largs Yacht Haven if there are 7 people booked onto the trip, or if you have chartered the full boat. Perfect location for diving around Cumbrae & Bute areas. If you arrange to meet us here, Jason will contact you about which berth he will use and will come and open up the gate to the pontoon and help you load the boat. There is ample free customer parking, toilets, showers, laundrette, café and shops.

Dive Sites

We have a wide range of wreck and scenic sites here in the Clyde ranging from 5-50m in depth so there is something for everyone. Please check out all the info you will need on the diving page of our website. We have created an online map (continues to be updated) where you can check out all of our local Clyde sites, including sheltered shore dive options if the weather is not in our favour. You can also check out Finstrokes website for many more options.

Airfills

As mentioned above, we are delighted to now be able to provide you air fills should you decide to visit us here in the Holy Loch. We have a price list that we can send separately, but you will also find a link to the document on our website.

If you decide to stay elsewhere, we have a list of companies who would be able to assist you with your air fills, including nitrox, o2 and trimix. Please make sure you call the dive centres below before you travel to ensure they are open and can cater for your needs before you travel.

C&C Marine: Based in Fairlie Quay approx. 2 miles south of Largs Marina. Average costs per fill are £6 here. They also do Nitrox. Tel: 01475 687180 <https://www.ccmarine.co.uk/>

West Coast Diving: Based near Kilmarnock, our friends at WCD are a good bet for you either on route north to your visit with us, or should we take our diving down to the areas of Troon and Girvan (Ailsa Craig). Air and Nitrox are provided here. Tel: 07904 539512 <https://www.westcoastdiving.com/>

Aquatron Dive Centre: Based in Glasgow approx. 28 miles east of Inverkip Marina. An air card can be purchased making fills cheaper for large groups. Average costs per fills are £4.50 from here. They also do nitrox. Tel: 0141 4297575 <https://aquatron.co.uk/>
